

Alice Gaston

Managing Director

Alice Gaston is a Managing Director at DCI, where she advises clients on public affairs strategies across key sectors including technology, telecom, healthcare, and education. She specializes in strategic alliances and coalition management, cultivating relationships with non-governmental organizations, advocacy groups, and policy experts to support client objectives.

Alice also leads DCI's event planning practice, managing a wide range of high-impact engagements--from salon dinners to multi-day conferences.

Earlier in her career, Alice worked at the National Association for State Community Services Programs (NASCSPP), supporting energy efficiency initiatives in low-income housing at the state level.
