

Kevin Ivers

Vice President

Kevin Ivers is Vice President at DCI where he provides counsel to a range of DCI's clients, drawing on over 25 years of experience in strategic communications and public policy.

He has been an integral part of many key client wins in a wide range of areas, including U.S. and global litigation support, disruptive technologies and innovation, sovereign debt and trade disputes, financial services and investor rights, health policy, civil rights, promoting democratic institutions abroad and combating corruption. Since 2002, Kevin has also run many successful campaigns throughout Latin America and the Caribbean, deploying his expertise on the political and cultural dynamics that drive official actions in that region.

Kevin is a permanent resident of Brazil, a dual national of the United States and the Republic of Ireland and speaks fluent Spanish and Portuguese. He publishes a weekly newsletter over Substack, entitled StratComms.
