Director

Matt Suermann joined DCI in April 2011 and currently serves as a Director in the firm's Research Department. He has extensive experience developing innovative campaign-style research products to help craft client messaging documents and help inform campaign tactics. While his work covers DCI's wide portfolio of client issues, Matt has developed an expertise in telecom, energy, financial services and healthcare issues. Additionally, he manages the recruitment and development of the firm's Account Associates.

Prior to joining DCI, Matt was the Membership Director for the Republican National Lawyers Association. During the 2008 campaign cycle, Matt worked as a Field Representative on Sen. John E. Sununu's re-election campaign and Mitt Romney's "first-in-the nation" presidential primary campaign in New Hampshire.

A native of Bedford, NH, Matt earned his Bachelor of Arts in Politics from The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. He currently resides in Alexandria, VA with his wife.
