Account Executive

Sarah Mitchell is an Account Executive at DCI, where she has played a pivotal role in supporting numerous public affairs advocacy campaigns across diverse sectors such as energy, healthcare, finance, agriculture, and technology. She has experience in coalition building, consultant management, strategic alliances, grassroots advocacy and media relations. Her comprehensive skill set allows her to fully integrate into her clients' campaign needs and engage in all facets of a campaign, from digital design to written and spoken communications. Before joining DCI, Sarah gained experience as a communications intern at the American Petroleum Institute. Originally from Warrenton, VA, she earned her Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations from Pennsylvania State University, with minors in Digital Media Trends and Analytics and Architectural Studies. She currently resides in Arlington, VA.

In college, Sarah was the captain of the Penn State Women's Club Soccer 2021 National Championship team. She still finds time to play soccer in her free time.
