Account Executive

A Washington, D.C. native and Miami University (Ohio) graduate, Theodore (Teddy) Witt joined DCI in June 2022.

Teddy is currently an Account Executive at the firm, where he assists with various campaigns by providing strategic communications and tailored research products to help clients achieve their public affairs objectives. He supports a wide range of clients across multiple sectors, with a particular focus on energy, congressional investigations, and telecommunications. Prior to joining DCI, he worked on a U.S. Senate campaign in Ohio and in both the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate as an Intern. He also spent time working as an Intern for a bipartisan DC-based government relations firm. Outside of work, Teddy is an avid golfer and skier. He also is a proud Eagle Scout.
